

ERCO

Light for "Turning to other matters."

More Informations

London Design Festival 2016

DESIGN / 26 AUG 2016

As London Design Festival (17–25 September) unfolds with a blockbuster edition, Team Wallpaper* hits the ground running to bring you the best highlights from the festival's Landmark Projects and newly minted design districts. Not to mention the rousing exhibitions, eye-popping installations and glittering events from all across the English capital, too. Check back for live updates below...

London Design Festival 2016: in pictures

The V&A's tapestry galleries play host to the mesmerising reflections of Benjamin Hubert's Foll installation for Braun. The piece is made up of 50,000 metallic panels, each hand-stuck to create a slow-moving wave that projects onto the wall via some clever LED action by TM Lighting. Nodding to the master engineering that Braun uses for its shavers, each small blade creates its own shimmering shadow in the arched space

14 / 28

For some of life's questions, you're not alone. Together we can find an answer.

Find out more >

